

Your Record Your Care Your Decision

Ipswich and East Suffolk
Clinical Commissioning Group

In order that they can treat you safely and well, it is important that health professionals can access your health record. This can only happen if you agree to share your details.

Who can see my record if I agree to share?

- ✓ my GP surgery & GP+ staff
- ✓ hospital & hospice staff
- ✓ out of hours providers
- ✓ mental health staff
- ✓ community healthcare staff
- ✓ urgent care staff

Why should I share?

- All health professionals involved in my care can see my records
- My GP surgery can see what others are doing to support and treat me
- It stops me having to repeat my story to other care services
- It keeps me safer
- It saves valuable time if I'm taken ill

How do I share?

Simply complete the form 'Who can see my health record?' available from reception.

It could save your life.

Q. Can I change my mind later?

A. YES. At any time.

Q. Can they see ALL of my information?

A. NO. You can choose to keep some of this private if you wish.
